Loretta Lees, Hyun Bang Shin, Ernesto López-Morales (Polity, 2016) There have been lots of proclamations of global gentrification based on speculation rather than investigation. In our book we use the word 'planetary' to signal our critique of assertions that gentrification has simply 'gone global'.

This paper is an empirical examination of the process of 'super-gentrification' in the Brooklyn Heights neighbourhood of New York City. This intensified regentrification is happening in a few select areas of global cities like London and New York that have become the focus of intense investment and conspicuous consumption by a new generation of super-rich 'financifiers' fed by fortunes from ...
