Terradox is a different kind of book than Not Alone, with a tighter focus on a smaller cast of characters and more of a fast-paced adventure feel. In my mind I think of Not Alone as being like a sprawling TV series and Terradox more like a movie.

Terradox isn't a bad book by any means, but it didn't live up to my expectations. The story deals with the same kinds of things as Not Alone -- conspiracies, government corruption and cover-ups, space defence -- but in a much more fictional setting. So while Not Alone was based on real conspiracy theories (or actual conspiracies, in some cases ...
